1. On 10 December 1950 [REDACTED] at Belok there was a secret anti-Communist organization called ONE (sic) (from the capital letters of OOH - United Nations Organization). The organization had three light machine guns, one English rifle with 800 cartridges, eight rifles of various types, hand grenades, and expected to receive more weapons from a Warrant Officer who was serving in a unit at Nikopol. The organization was to act on 1 May 1951 after receiving orders from a higher authority (sic).

- 25X1X 2. [REDACTED] one of the men of the organization was on the District Committee of the Communist Party of Plevna; this man supplied the organization with Communist Party secrets.

- 25X1X 3. on 14 or 15 March 1951 the Minister of Agriculture visited the area of Toteven, where the farmers of a few of the villages had tried unsuccessfully to get their fields back from the Kolkhoz; during a clash with the police, the leaders of the attempt were arrested. The Minister of Agriculture told the peasants that they should not have tried to use force, and that they would have to obey the orders of the government. The peasants reportedly answered that they wanted the Kolkhoz abolished, and left the square where the Minister was speaking.
